

The Feeling of Power by Isaac Asimov written 1958

Write a 5 paragraph essay in which you reflect on one of the following themes.

1. What is the theme or message that Asimov is relaying in this piece? Please provide 3 specific examples from the story of how he conveys this message.
2. How does the story relate to things as they are today? Does it at all? Please provide 3 real world examples to support your position.
3. One of the ideas developed by Asimov is that there will come a point in the future where people will become so dependent upon technology that it will lead to disaster. Find 3 examples of this in other pop-media (movies, literature, music, art, etc.) and compare and contrast those examples to Asimov's work.
