

Bell Work

What things do we look at to describe a character?
(We do this everyday in real life with people we come into contact with too.)

Characterization

In order to describe a character, we must look at 4
things:

1. How the character feels
2. What the character says
3. How the character acts
4. What the character looks like